

"Being, Belonging, Becoming"

What makes Hughesdale Kinder unique?

"The amazing spaces, especially the chicken coop and huge play space segmented into different learning areas and activities. The warm and inviting atmosphere at pick up and drop off. The sense of community amongst children, staff and parents. The over and above attitude, particularly during Covid-19; the packs sent home so that children could continue their learning, the regular contact updates and the reassurance and empathy shown were unexpected and genuinely heart warming."

"My son's teachers, Kerry and Lesley, are fabulous. They come with experience on children and their development, and deliver their experience in the most caring and loving manner. The fact that they have been with Hughesdale Kinder for a long time now, is testament to the fantastic environment of the kinder and the community."

"passionate, caring teachers"

What were the main factors that influenced your decision to choose Hughesdale Kinder for your child?

"Proximity, the amazing spaces, the warm and professional welcome we were offered from the initial phone call, through kinder tour, orientation, first week of kinder and beyond. Casual conversations with locals provided great word of mouth about the reputation of the kinder also."

"Hughesdale Kinder is near our house, so location, however we also heard great things about the kinder and its teachers. Additionally, we went to the open day and were really impressed by Kerry and co., not to mention the beautiful and natural environment of the kindergarten which you cannot get at some kinders"

"great reputation, close to home, well established kinder in local area"

" My child has thrived during her time at Hughesdale Kindergarten. She has grown in confidence and enjoys learning new concepts and life skills in a fun and nurturing environment. The teachers at Hughesdale Kindergarten are second to none."

Do it! The experience is an amazing one for child and parent/s both.

Hughesdale Kinder was a great choice for our family, not just due to location, but also due to the wonderful educators. The educators are caring and knowledgeable and work so well with the children and their parents. The actual physical environment of the kindergarten is natural and encourages play for the children, which is the best way for them to learn. Particularly during these trying times of Covid, Hughesdale Kinder has been supportive of our family.
